Summary of the Society's Privacy Policy

The Thomas Brassey Society will collect and use your personal data in compliance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and all relevant UK legislation. The legal basis for holding and processing your data is our legitimate interests and needs as a Society. Officers of the Society will use this data for running the Society and recording its membership, providing you the member with information, and to help us with the organisation of events.

This information will be recorded in our membership file, which may be stored in computer form in compliance with the UK GDPR.

Your personal data will not be passed on or sold by us to any third parties. Information about our data use policies, including how you can see what data we hold about you, how you can limit its use and how you can ask for any inaccuracies to be corrected is available under the link to Privacy Policy on the Society's web-site <http://www.thomasbrasseysociety.org>

Communication with the Society

The data we need to operate efficiently as a Society is the following minimum: -

Forename and Surname

Full postal address

Landline and/or Mobile phone number(s)

Email address

You are under no obligation to provide all this information, but failure to do so will obviously impair our ability to communicate effectively with you. In order to keep costs to a minimum, contact with members will normally be by e-mail. If you wish to contact the Society by e-mail, our address is :- tbsoc@hotmail.com
