The Thomas Brassey Society invites you to a free, illustrated talk to be given by British sculptor, Andy Edwards on his:

"Creation of the Thomas Brassey Sculpture"

to be erected outside Chester Station.

The talk will be held at:
The Queen Hotel, City Road, Chester
on Saturday, 13 July 2024 at 11.30 am to 12.30 pm

Thomas Brassey, an unknown local hero, was born a few miles south of Chester and became the
"World's Foremost Builder of Railways in the 19th century"*.

The Thomas Brassey Society is delighted to host a talk to be given by Andy Edwards who is currently creating the cast for our bronze statue of Thomas Brassey which will be erected outside Chester Station.

During his talk, Andy will also describe some of his other sculptures including The Beatles at Pier Head, Bob Marley and Sir Alex Ferguson.

Andy will start his talk at 11.30 am, immediately after our AGM at 10.30 am.

To attend there is no need to book in advance. You can either:
*arrive at The Queen Hotel just after 10 am for refreshments and join our AGM to find out more about the Society and then stay for Andy's talk, or *arrive at the Queen Hotel for an 11.30 am start of the talk.

If you would like to join us for lunch, contact the Secretary, Peter Bolt on petergillianbolt1@btinternet.com
